Madrid. Escuela de estudios árabes.

By governmental decree published January 27, 1922, two centers of Arabic studies were established under the name Escuela de estudios árabes, one at Madrid, the other at Granada.

The purpose of the school in Madrid is to direct and encourage scientific research in Moslem history, civilization and all phases of Moslem life, especially in Spain, and to publish editions, translations, and studies about Moslem authors, as well as a magazine which shall serve as the organ of the school.

The purpose of the school in Granada is to give advanced instruction in the Arabic language and civilization, and in Biblical and rabbinical Hebrew, to secure the interest of Moslem youth, and to carry on scientific investigation.

The scientific publications of the schools are issued jointly by the two centers.

Magna Britannia et Hibernia, antiqua & nova. Or, A new survey of Great Britain, wherein to the topographical account given by Mr. Camden, and the late editors of his Britannia, is added a more large history, not only of the cities, boroughs, towns, and parishes mentioned by them, but also of many other places of note, and antiquities since discovered. Together with the chronology of the most remarkable actions of the Britains, Romans, Saxons, Danes, and Normans. The lives and constitutions of the bishops of all our sees, founders and benefactors to our universities and monasteries, the sufferings of Malebranche, Nicolas, 1638-1715.

Father Malebranche his treatise concerning the search after truth. The whole work complete. To which is added the author's treatise of nature and grace: being a consequence of the principles contained in the Search. Together with his answer to the animadversions upon the first volume: his defence against the accusations of Monsieur de la Ville, &c. relating to the same subject. All translated by T. Taylor ...
The 2d ed., corrected with great exactness. With the addition, of a short discourse upon light and colours, by the same author.
